WIFE LIVES IN SUICIDE PACT. James A. Woodbury, 32, Central Intelligence Agency employe, was swept to his death, but his wife, Dorothy, was saved after they leaped into Potomac River rapids in apparent suicide pact. Leap took place at Great Falls, 12 miles above Washington. Mrs. Woodbury told police her husband "had a lot on his mind" and "They wanted to put him in a psycho ward." Couple recently returned to Arlington, Va. home after two-year tour of duty in Germany.
